

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE annual excursion of the A. P. V. A. to Jamestown is always one of the most popular outings of the spring season, including as it does so many delightful features, and the conditions this year make unusually attractive the pilgrimage by water to this historical Mecca, dear to the heart of every true Virginian.

Jamestown Island is always particularly beautiful in May, the heavy foliage and grasses in their spring-time freshness adding new grace to the remodeled church, all that is now left of the town built by John Smith and his colony, while the sail down the James river to grow in popularity that it never fails to attract tourists and visitors.

The members of the committee in charge are recognized for their business qualities which insure the comfort and convenience of those who go and for that charming personnel which guarantees a delightful time socially.

On Monday night two tables were engaged when the Stay-at-Home Whist Club met with Miss Margaret Morson, at 328 West Grace Street, Miss Eliza Meade Harvie and Robert E. Scott winning the score. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Arthur Posenby Wilmer, 317 West Grace Street.

Miss Matthews, a wedding of interest to Virginians, which took place last week in Montgomery, Ala., was that of Miss Fannie Matthews and Edward Lyle, formerly Commonwealth's attorney of Roanoke and State Senator from that city. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few relatives and friends on account of the recent death of the bride's father. Miss Matthews was attended by her sister, Mrs. E. M. Lyle, and Charles Lyle, of St. Louis, was his brother's best man.

Mr. Lyle is a native Virginian, being a member of a prominent family, and has been a resident of Atlanta only for the past six months, going to that city from Montgomery, where he has been living since leaving Roanoke. He is a graduate of Columbia University, and received his early education at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and has numbers of friends throughout Virginia.

Miss Matthews is popular in the social life of Montgomery and Alabama, and possesses an attractive personality, which has won her many friends. She is the daughter of the late C. L. Matthews, and a great-granddaughter of George Matthews, who was twice Governor of Georgia, and a prominent Revolutionary character.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle are now on their wedding trip, and will stop in Norfolk for several days, and most probably in Richmond before returning to Atlanta, where they will make their future home.

SLEEPLESS NIGHTS
are most frequently caused by poor digestion. If you cannot sleep and your food leaves you on your stomach, you should have at hand Dr. H. C. Turbin's Dyspepsia Tablets. Besides relieving the stomach they cure constipation, and have a direct and salutary effect on the liver. Overwhelmingly superior to the ordinary dyspepsia cures. Ask your druggist and don't take a substitute. Sold by Owens & Minor, P. W. Hageman, People's Drug Store.

There is a cake of Ivory Soap in your bathroom; or, at all events, there ought to be.

But if you use it only for the bath, you are not getting all the good out of it you should.

Use it for the toilet as well as for the bath; and for fine laundry purposes, too.

A CLOSE SHAVE

Many of Them Happening Every Day But Soon Forgotten.

CLOSE shaves would be of more frequent occurrence but for the indifference of many men, which will not permit of shaving often. Heretofore nothing has been said in these columns about posium, a new skin discovery in connection with its use after shaving. Its publicity and sales have been confined almost exclusively to its remarkable properties as a permanent cure to stop the itching at once and cures the worst cases in a few days. While the application of posium after shaving is one of the minor uses, such as for pimples, the complexion, etc., shavers will find it a revelation, as it does for abrasions, roughness, and severe itching. It is a cure for all manner of skin difficulties—beats and cures in a few hours. It is the only article possessing real antiseptic and curative value that has ever been exploited for this purpose, and will soothe and tone up the skin as no toilet preparation could possibly do. It can be had for fifty cents at any reliable druggist's, particularly "Trigles," who make a specialty of it.
